Camping

I love to camp. When we camp, Mom and Dad pick the spot in the hills. The last trip we had was lots of fun. Sis and I set up the tent. Then we hit the top of the tent to test it. It didn't fall. We sat and rested.

All of us got hot. We then ran to the big pond. Sis and I slid into the pond and got wet. I felt a fish brush me. I then felt something long and thin brush me. It was a big snake, and it was coming at Sis and me! We yelled and ran to the end of the pond. It was next to us when we heard a splash. Mom hit it with a big rock.

We jumped from the pond. We were wet, but we ran and ran. As the snake slipped from the pond and went after us,
