Flying Saucer

It was late at night in the fall, and I had gone to bed at ten o'clock. I was still small. I think I was six. I woke up because of an awful bang, and then I ran to the lawn and looked up in the sky. A flying saucer was spinning near the forest next to my home. As I saw it suddenly land in the woods, I yelled to my folks, but I don't think they heard me.

I left home and went into the woods looking for the saucer. The saucer was for real; it was not a fraud. It had landed in the grass in the forest. A big ramp came out from the ship, and then I saw two aliens walk away from the flying saucer. I crawled to a rock and hid behind it,
